BOARD CHARTER

1. INTRODUCTION

The Board of Directors (“the Board”) of Maxis Berhad (“Maxis” or “the Company”) are committed to upholding the highest standards of Corporate Governance throughout the Company and its subsidiaries (“the Group”). The Board comprising the directors of the Company (“Directors”) is guided as follows

- The Board is the focal point of the Company’s Corporate Governance system.
- The business and affairs of the Company is managed by the Directors within the powers under the Company’s Constitution and Companies Act 2016 (the “Act”);
- All Directors shall exercise their powers for proper purpose and in good faith in the best interest of the Company; and
- This Board Charter shall constitute, and form, an integral part of each Director’s commitments, duties, roles and responsibilities.

2. OBJECTIVES

This Board Charter sets out:-

- i. the role, functions, composition, operation and processes of the Board
- ii. Duties and responsibilities of the directors
- iii. principles and practices of good Corporate Governance that must be applied in all their dealings with and on behalf of, the Company.

This Board Charter is a source of reference and primary induction literature to provide insights to prospective Board members and Senior Management on the matters set out in the preceding paragraph. In addition, it will assist the Board in assessing its collective performance and that of each individual Director. The Board acknowledges that the Board has full and unfettered right to carry out its duties under law, have full access to information and that this Charter is not intended to limit the Board’s discharge of its duties in accordance with and as required by the applicable laws.

3. THE BOARD

3.1 Board Membership

3.1.1 Composition and Board Balance

- 3.1.1.1 The Board comprises members of high calibre and integrity with diverse professional backgrounds, skills, extensive experience and knowledge required for the successful direction of the Group.
- 3.1.1.2 The Company's Constitution provides for a minimum of three (3) directors and a maximum of fifteen (15) directors. The number of Independent Directors is subject to the applicable governance regulations and applicable law.
- 3.1.1.3 The presence of the Independent Non-Executive Directors is essential in providing unbiased and impartial opinion, advice and judgement to ensure that the interests, not only of the Group, but also of its shareholders, employees, customers, suppliers and other communities in which the Group conducts its business are well represented and taken into account. The Independent Non-Executive Directors thus play a key role in corporate accountability and as a check and balance.
- 3.1.1.4 The Board has identified a Senior Independent Director ("SID") and the SID shall act as:-
- (i) sounding board for the Chairman;
 - (ii) intermediary for other Directors when necessary; and
 - (iii) point of contact for shareholders and other stakeholders on any queries and concerns regarding the Maxis Group, including any reporting on any whistleblowing

3.1.2 Appointments

- 3.1.2.1 The appointment of a new Director is a matter for consideration and decision by the Board upon appropriate recommendation from the Nomination Committee ("NC"). In making these recommendations, the NC assesses the suitability of candidates, taking into account the qualifications, credentials, core competencies vis-à-vis the compositions of required mix of skills to demonstrate knowledge, expertise and experience, character, professionalism, integrity, competencies, time commitment and other qualities, which the Director would bring to the Board to effectively discharge his role as Director of the Company as prescribed by Para 2.20A and para 15.05 of the Main Market Listing Requirements ("MMLR") of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad ("Bursa Securities") from time to time .
- 3.1.2.2 The Company Secretary has the responsibility for ensuring that the relevant procedures relating to the appointment of new Directors are properly executed.
- 3.1.2.3 The directorships held by any Board member at any one time in both listed and non-listed companies shall not exceed the restriction in number or such other requirements as may be prescribed by the MMLR of Bursa Securities from time to time.

3.1.3 Re-election

- 3.1.3.1 The Constitution provides that all Directors who are appointed by the Board may only hold office until the following Annual General Meeting (“AGM”) subsequent to their appointment and shall then be eligible for re-election but shall not be taken into account in determining the Directors who are required to retire by rotation at that AGM.
- 3.1.3.2 The Constitution also provide that one-third of the Directors are subject to retirement by rotation at every AGM but are eligible for re-election provided always that all Directors including the Executive Directors shall retire from office at least once in every three years.
- 3.1.3.3 The NC and Board will assess the Directors’ standing for re-election to ensure that such Directors meet the criteria of character, experience, integrity, competence and time to effectively discharge their respective roles as Directors of the Company.

3.1.4 Independence

- 3.1.4.1 The Board should include significant representation by Directors who are capable and willing to make decisions which are in the best interests of members, free from interests and influences which conflict with that duty and are also independent of management.
- 3.1.4.2 The NC and Board assesses, bi-annually, the independence of each Independent Director in light of the interests they have disclosed and such other factors as the Board determines are appropriate to take into account in determining whether the Director is independent of management and free of any business or other relationship that could materially interfere with or could be perceived to materially interfere with, the exercise of their unfettered and independent judgement.
- 3.1.4.3 The tenure of an Independent Director may exceed a cumulative term of nine years. However, upon completion of the nine years, such Independent Director may continue to serve on the Board as an Independent Director subject to shareholders approval, assessment by the NC and strong justification from the Board for such Director to remain as an Independent Director on annual basis.
- 3.1.4.4 In the event, the tenure of the Independent Directors to be retained beyond 12 years, procedure in 3.1.4.3 above is applicable and shareholders’ approval be made through two-tier voting process as described in MCCG 2017.
- 3.1.4.5 Such Independent Director shall continue to act as Director and to be re-designated as Non Independent Director if shareholders’ approval in 3.1.4.3 and 3.1.4.4 are not obtained.

3.1.5 Other Directorships

3.1.5.1 All Board members shall notify the Chairman of the Board before accepting any new directorships in any other organisation. The notification shall include an indication of time commitment required under the new appointment.

3.1.5.2 An assessment shall be carried out for any newly appointed Director, and at regular intervals to ensure that the Director meets the criteria set out in Paragraph 2.20A of the MMLR on the character, integrity, expertise and time commitment required of the Director. Each Independent Director shall also be assessed to ensure independence in accordance with the criteria laid out in the MMLR and any other applicable law, regulation or Malaysian Code of Corporate Governance 2017 ("MCCG 2017") or any other revisions to the MCCG 2017 as may be issued from time to time.

3.1.6 Directors' Remuneration

3.1.6.1 The remuneration of the Directors (Executive and Non- executive) are subject to review and recommendation by the Remuneration Committee.

3.1.6.2 The determination of the remuneration of the Executive Directors will be a matter to be decided by the Board as a whole. The mechanism for remuneration for Executive Directors is structured in a manner wherein an Executive Director is rewarded based on the Company's performance and also individual performance.

3.1.6.3 Payment of Directors' fees and benefits in kind (include compensation for loss of office) to Non-Executive Directors are subject to annual shareholders' approval. Directors are also entitled to reimbursement of reasonable expenses for travel to meetings and in furtherance of duties (track language)

3.1.6.4 The policy on Directors' Remuneration, Expenses and Reimbursement has been established for Directors' reference.

3.1.7 Directors' Trainings and Continuing Education

In addition to the Mandatory Accreditation Programme as required by Bursa Securities, the Directors shall continue to update their knowledge and enhance their skills through appropriate continuing education programmes and life-long learning. This will enable Directors to effectively discharge their duties and sustain active participation during Board deliberations.

The Board, assisted by the NC, shall evaluate and determine the training needs of its Directors on an on-going basis, by determining areas that would best strengthen their contribution to the Board.

3.2 Board Role

3.2.1 Duties and Responsibilities

Subject to any modification, exception or limitation contained in the Act or in the Constitution of the Company, the Board shall have all the powers necessary for managing and for directing and supervising the management of the business and affairs of the Company and assumes amongst others the following duties and responsibilities as specified in MCCG 2017:-

The Secretary also undertakes the statutory duties as prescribed under the Act and the MMLR.

5. INVESTOR RELATIONS AND SHAREHOLDERS COMMUNICATION

- 5.1 The Board shall place great importance in promoting effective communication and proactive engagements with the Company's shareholders. The Board shall also ensure high standards of transparency and accountability in its communication with shareholders, as well as with potential investors, analysts and the public. The shareholders shall be informed of all material matters affecting the Company and Group.
- 5.2 The Board ensures the timely release of financial results on a quarterly basis to provide shareholders with an overview of the Company's performance and operations in addition to the various announcements made during the year.
- 5.3 The Board ensures that the Company conducts meetings with financial analysts or other investment professionals from time to time (using teleconferencing where appropriate) to convey information relating to the Company's performance, corporate strategy and other matters affecting shareholders' interests, subject always to the relevant laws on the disclosure of material price sensitive information.
- 5.4 The Board views general meetings as an important mechanism in shareholders communication. The Board shall encourage shareholders participation at general meetings by ensuring among others that:-

- the Board and/or Senior Management conducts a business presentation with a question and answer session;
- reasonable time is provided for discussion of genuine questions at the meeting; and
- shareholders are informed of their right to demand a poll vote at the commencement of the meeting.

5.5 An online Investor Relations section and online Press Room, the “Maxis Media Centre”, which can be accessed by shareholders and the general public via the Company’s website provides easy access to corporate information pertaining to the Company and its activities which is continuously updated.

6. ANTI-BRIBERY & CORRUPTION AND CODE OF BUSINESS PRACTICE

6.1 The Group’s Code of Business Practice (“the Code”) and Maxis Anti-Bribery and Corruption policies apply to all Directors and employees of the Group who are required to affirm on a yearly basis their commitment to observe the Code and the Anti-Bribery and Corruption policies. The Board has endorsed the Maxis Policy Statement on Anti-Bribery and Corruption which is listed at <http://www.maxis.com.my/corp> .

6.2 The Code serves as documentation of the Directors’ and employees’ commitment to do business in a manner that is efficient, ethical, effective and fair and is meant as a reference for all Directors and all levels of employees. There is also a separate Code which is made applicable to vendors, dealers as well as other third parties that engaged in business dealings with the Group. The Code can be accessed at <http://www.maxis.com.my/corp>.

7. APPLICATION

7.1 The principles set out in this Charter are:

- a) kept under review and updated as practices on Corporate Governance develop and further guidelines on Corporate Governance are issued by the relevant regulatory authorities from time to time;
- b) applied in practice having regard to their spirit and general principles rather than to the letter alone; and
- c) summarised in the Annual Report as part of a narrative statement by the Directors on Corporate Governance.

7.2 The Board endeavours to comply at all times with the principles and practices set out in this Charter.

8. REVIEW OF THE BOARD CHARTER

- 8.1 The Board Charter has been adopted by the Board on 24 October 2017. Any subsequent amendment to the Charter must be approved by the Board.
- 8.2 The Board Charter will be periodically reviewed by the Board and updated in accordance with the needs of the Company and any new regulations that may have an impact on the discharge of the Board's responsibilities.
- 8.3 The Board Charter is made available for reference in the Company's website at <http://www.maxis.com.my/corp>
